Expected Behaviour

All participants and staff are asked to be considerate of others and are expected to uphold the values and principles of Te Wananga O Aotearoa while working under our roof. These values include:

Te Aroha: means that everyone treats each other with respect, love, and caring. We will not tolerate discrimination or mistreatment of participants, volunteers or mentors during the short course

Te Whakapono: Is about acting with integrity during the wananga. Participants must not knowingly interfere or sabotage the efforts of other teams or participants during the wananga. Teams should also not copy the work of others unless they have consulted with and obtained permission first.

Nga Ture: Everyone must act in accordance with the rules set down by the event coordinators and must not break any laws for the sake of advancing their project.

Kotahitanga: The importance of human skills (whanaungatanga) for building successful businesses is one of the most important learnings of the Wānanga. We encourage everyone to focus on relationship building, strategies for resolving decisions and managing conflicts effectively with other team members. Where possible teams are also encouraged to collaborate with other teams to build better products and services.

Your Obligations

You will also be required to adhere to any applicable TWA Policies and Procedures including but not limited to our Digital Tikanga Guide and our ICT Policy when attending sessions online as well as any terms of use for any platforms which you use as a part of this Short Course.
